What's the use, Folks—What's the Use!

WHY take honest-to-John Tobacco that nature grew for us all—and then "spill the beans" by messing it up with lolly pops?

Velvet isn't fooled with that way.

Velvet has just naturally relied on Nature since it was knee-high to a grasshopper.

First off, it was bred in old Kentucky, wonderland of Tobacco.

Next come, it was cured in the open air, right out with the good ole sunshine. Yes sir.

THEN it was gentled along by its lonesome for two years, while it just kind of thought things over and decided to have no bad qualities.

After these two years in wooden hogsheads it was packed in the jolly red tin you see everywhere, if you're not color blind—and we hope you're not.

As Velvet Joe says:

"The way Nature does things is best for man and his tobacco. You can't fool Nature—an' she won't fool you."

FIFTEEN cents seems a pickayune price, doesn't it, after all that?

Can you think, right off, of anything more or better for a dime and a nickel? And for cigarette smokers—there are 45 mellow cigarettes in every Velvet tin.

Velvet sure will be right glad to meet you this very day.

The Hindus and the Lotus.

The Hindus compare India to the lotus; the petals representing Central India and the surrounding leaves the divisions of the country. The design is much used in eastern temples and architecture generally, and the plant is cultivated in public gardens. A pond in the Taj gardens at Agra holds pure lotus blossoms.

Good Printing

THE kind of printing that pays dividends is the kind you should have. Pale, muddy, poorly arranged printed matter is worse than none. The quality of your business is often judged by the quality of your stationery—inferior printing gives an impression of cheapness that is hard to overcome, while good printing carries with it a desirable suggestion of quality.

We produce only Quality Printing. Whether you want an inexpensive handbill or a letterhead in colors, if you order it from us you will be sure of getting good work. Effect of the Circus.

Next to this comes Leland, with a velocity of 227 kilometers a second, in the opposite direction.

The Republicans defeated their best men for office. Charles R. Mock was one of the most efficient and able Prothonotors Bedford County ever had. He stands in the Humphrey D. Notes and other legal documents are at his disposal and if he becomes derelict the people suffer. The thing to do is to support a man who has intelligence and energy enough to do the work. WASHINGTON October 8.—Warning that another Liberty Loan will be necessary if the Republican majorities in Congress continue the reckless appropriation of tremendous sums beyond the reasonable requirements of the government was voiced before the House Select Committee on Budget by Secretary of the Treasury Carter Glass.

"Today the credit of the United States is imperilled by projects initiated and supported on the floor of Congress with a view of capturing the so-called 'soldier vote,'" Mr. Glass declared. "I do not believe for a minute there is any such thing as the soldier vote. I do not believe these fine young men, if they realized what it is that is proposed in their behalf, would accept a gift made at the expense of their fathers, mothers and sisters and the children that are to come after them in order to give them a holiday."

It has been the disheartening task of the Treasury to examine scores and scores of bills drawn and presented with a view to benefiting a section of the country or a portion of its citizenship at the expense of the whole. Many of these bills were apparently devised to avoid the appearance of an appropriation by requiring the Secretary of the Treasury to issue bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness to meet the expenditure, and all of these bills were such as would not be reached by a purely executive budget.

I have said the finances of the United States are in excellent condition. I have said in substance that I do not anticipate a deficit in the current fiscal year in excess of $1,000,000,000 and that that deficit is covered by deferred installments of the Victory Loan, payable within the fiscal year. I have said that there need be no more Liberty Loans.

But I say to you in all solemnity that if a prompt and immediate halt is not called to this great peril, there must be another Liberty Loan, and you gentlemen will have to go out to the people of the United States and call upon them to subscribe for bonds, the proceeds of which are to be given away to the well and strong young men who you and I and the American people know went out in a spirit of unselfishness, not one of self seeking to fight for their country.

Matter of Adaptability.

Adaptability works toward contentment; to fit ourselves willingly and cheerfully into the changed conditions that exist today in countless homes throughout this broad land means the lifting of another heavy burden from the heads of the households. Many things in our way of living which we would have once called essentials we now regard as useless, taxing our time and resources. And yet we can live fully pleasantly, even more smoothly than in other days.—Exchange.

Calendar Facts

The month of January always begins on the same day of the week as October and the same is true of April and July, September and December. February, March and November also begin on the same day of the week. This however, is only true in normal years of 365 days. A century can never begin on Wednesday, Friday or Saturday. Furthermore, the ordinary year ends on the same day of the week as that on which it begins.

Invest In a Human Life

This little one, and 800,000 like her in Europe alone, must die if YOU close your heart.

Today, when Jew and Non-Jew have united in a common brotherhood, when in America, in England, in France, in Russia, in Poland, the son of Abraham and the follower of Christ bound in common memories of heroic sacrifices on the battlefield that Civilization and Humanity might be preserved, have struck the hand of friendship — today, this little child and all of her race are facing absolute extermination. Not a human persecutor now—Famine and Pestilence and Cold have united against these helpless ones. They have but one salvation.

open arbitration inquiry and discussion before resort to war is vital to the welfare of the American people and the welfare of the world. WASHINGTON, October 3.—Democratic leaders who six months ago were plainly apprehensive for 1920 are once more optimistic and confident of success. With National Chairman Homer S. Cummings, they have become convinced that the Republican party dug its political grave when it won last fall's congressional elections, for none of the pledges condemned then have since been justified by events.

Among measures which remain unacted on by the Republican majority in congress are the soldiers settlement bill, food-control legislation and laws to punish profiteering and hoarding a merchant marine policy; provision for the return of the railroads to private ownership; measures to control the packers and the new army bill.

Practically all the bills enacted by the Sixty-sixth congress were holdovers from the Democratic congress adjourned last March, and not a single constructive measure of any consequence has been originated and passed by the Republican majority now in control.

Divided leadership, an aimless course in legislation and lack of policy, responsible for this condition has characterized the conduct of the majority since congress was called into extraordinary session last May. The present leaders in House and Senate do not command the respect of their colleagues and repeatedly have been unable to control the members of their own party when a strict "party vote" was desired.

President Wilson has jockeyed the Republican party out of position on the cost-of-living question, the labor issue, and in the opinion of shrewd observers will win his fight for ratification of the peace treaty. Developments of the past week have afforded practical assurance that the radical amendments and textual changes reported by the Senate foreign relations committee will finally be defeated, and that the treaty with the League of Nations covenant intact, will be ratified with only interpretative reservations acceptable to the President.

There has been constant criticism of the leadership of Representative Frank W. Mondell of Wyoming in the Republican house. Almost every caucus of the majority has witnessed an eruption against his policies—or lack of them—and parliamentary methods. This agitation has not yet reached the point when his removal has been demanded, but has approached perilously near that result. One of the measures for which Mondell is directly responsible was the bill repealing the daylight saving act over the President's veto disregarding the wishes of millions of industrial workers in the east in order to satisfy the farmers in the middle west.

In the Senate the leadership of Lodge is equally unsatisfactory to many of his associates. He has vacillated on the League of Nations amendments to the peace treaty and aroused the ire of the treaty and ers as well as the "mild reservationists". Determined to put over the Johnson amendment equalizing the representation of the United States and Great Britain in the League assembly, called by President Wilson a "debating society" he was notified by seven progressive senators classed as "mild reservationists" that if the amendment were brought up at the present time they would vote against it and defeat it. As a consequence it was dropped to the bottom of the list and probably will not come up for a month, if at all.

Both in the House and Senate the old breach between the progressives and reactionaries is again apparent. Senators like Penrose and others of the old guard are determined that progressives of the Johnson-Borah stamp shall play second fiddle in anything that is done. There have been persistent reports that Penrose, listening to the voice of the country and particularly to the business interests, which seek an early return to normal conditions, will oppose drastic amendments to the treaty and at the proper time will assist in unloading as much as possible of the odium of sponsoring them on the two westerners named.

Politics creeps into everything the Republican majority does in congress and because of shortsighted and mistaken leadership, inevitably to the party's detriment.

WASHINGTON, October 3.—Few state political campaigns are so closely watched in the national capital as were the Pennsylvania primaries. Nor was the interest in Pennsylvania affairs confined to the primaries alone, for politicians of both parties who figure in the shaping of policies and grooming of candidates believe that more local importance, and may have a direct bearing on the 1920 presidential campaign.

Senator Penrose's victories in Philadelphia and Allegheny counties in the September primaries are considered here to assure his reelection next year. At the same time the result is believed to leave political alignments as unsettled as ever, simply postponing the day of reckoning.

It was accepted by the shrewdest observers in Washington that had the Penrose organizations been defeated in the two most populous counties of the state Governor William C. Sproul would have opposed his reelection to the Senate next year. This is still possible, though not probable, in the view of these politicians.

In the light of the primary results it is figured that Sproul will "go along" with Penrose for the time being, and that the latter, in order to keep the governor out of the race for senatorial honors and make his own fight easier, in the 1920 primaries, may propose him for president and send Sproul delegates to the 1920 national convention without any serious idea of nominating him or letting him get past the "favorite son" stage.

Explaining "Yankee."
Yankee "was a cant, favorite word with farmer Jonathan Hastings of Cambridge about 1713. . . . A Yankee good horse, or Yankee cider and the like. . . . The students (of Harvard) used to hire horses of him; their intercourse with him, and his use of the term on all occasions, led them to adopt it."—Will Gordon, "Independence of United States," volume 1, letter 12, page 482.

The Violin Bow.
The shape of the present bow dates from the end of the eighteenth century when F. Tourte changed it from the bow shape as its name indicates. It should be from 27 to 30 inches long and contain from 130 to 150 hairs which are drawn tight by the nut. The stick is generally of snakewood, or lancewood.

How Character is Revealed.
The little things that we do without thinking are the things that tell what we really are. We may desire to possess a character that we have not yet attained, or we may pose for the kind of person we are not, but our unguarded movements betray us. What we speak more loudly than what we say.

Heat ALL Your House THROUGH ONE REGISTER

Yes, it's just as possible in your home as it has been in fifty thousand others. You, too, may have every room comfortable with balmy healthful heat, reaching every corner by Nature's method of circulation—and all through only one register! It isn't necessary to clutter up your house with pipes, overheat your cellar and incur big bills—not when you can get the

THE CALORIC
The Original Patented Pipeless Furnace

It can be set up in a day, without inconvenience to you, and will make your home so comfortable in the severest winter weather you will be well repaid.

Your house will be uniformly warm; your cellar will be just right for the storage of fruits and vegetables. Your fuel bill will be less than with stoves that heat only a part of your house.

HERE ARE THE REASONS

The Caloric is the Original Patented Pipeless Furnace—the result of the study of competent engineers to solve the heating problem in the most satisfactory way. That they have succeeded is proved by the fact that the number of Calorics sold on an absolute guarantee of satisfaction is three times greater than any other pipeless furnace.

The cause of this satisfaction lies in the patented and exclusive principles that distinguish the Caloric from all others. It is not a pipe furnace provided with an extra casing, but a complete revolution in furnace building designed exclusively for pipeless heating.

Come In And See Us

We will show you what these principles are, will then see what Caloric quality means, why it succeeds and why imitations cannot accomplish results. Then you will be in no danger of buying inferior article, with all its disappointment in later years. Get a copy of the book "Progress," which tells about pipeless heating. If you can't come in, write

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 5

JOHN AND PETER BECOME DISCIPLES OF JESUS.

LESSON TEXT—John 1:29-42
GOLDEN TEXT—Jesus said unto him, follow me—John 1:43
ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Matt. 9:9, Mark 2:13-17, John 1:43-51
PRIMARY TOPIC—Finding the best friend.
JUNIOR TOPIC—John and Peter decide to follow Jesus.
INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—Becoming disciples of Jesus.
SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC—Claims of Christ upon all men.

I. John the Baptist Testifies to His Disciples Concerning Jesus (vv. 29-34).

1. Jesus as the Lamb of God (v. 29). "Lamb" was familiar to the Jewish mind. It denoted a substitutionary sacrifice for sin. Christ was the true lamb to which every sacrificial offering pointed. He was the lamb which Israel showed should be brought to the slaughter (Isa. 53:7), upon whom the Lord laid man's iniquity. Christ was God's lamb because he was the one set apart from the foundation of the world to make atonement for man's sins (1 Pet. 1:18-20). John invited his disciples to behold the Lamb of God.

2. The Baptizer with the Holy Ghost (vv. 30-35). The Spirit descended upon him as Isaiah said (Isa. 11:2). John then knew for a certainty that he was the baptizer with the Holy Ghost. The same Holy Spirit will be given to all who ask for him (Luke 11:13).

3. Jesus is the Son of God (v. 34). Being the son of God he is one in nature with God.

II. Two Disciples Following Jesus (vv. 35-37).

As a result of the Baptist's testimony, two of the disciples leave him and follow Jesus. At John's request they looked. This look was sufficient to induce them to follow Jesus. A sincere look upon Jesus is always sufficient. John did not become envious of Christ's success, but rejoiced in it (John 3:28-29). All Sunday school teachers should so witness that the pupils will look to and follow Jesus. This is the whole method the sum and substance of salvation.

III. The Disciples Abiding With Jesus (vv. 38, 39).

Seeing the disciples following him, Jesus made inquiry as to their object. Their reply showed the desire to go apart privately where they could be close to him. He invited them to his abode, where for the remainder of that day they enjoyed sweet intercourse with him.

IV. The Disciples Bringing Others to Jesus (vv. 40-42).

Having found by experience what fellowship with Jesus means, they go at once and tell others of their priceless treasure.

1. Andrew brings Peter (vv. 40-42). Peter was Andrew's brother. A true brother who has found Christ will go and tell his brethren. The proper place to begin witnessing for Christ is among one's kinsfolk (Luke 8:39).

(2) Philip brings Nathaniel (vv. 43-45). He witnessed to him concerning the messiahship of Jesus. He told them that Christ was he of whom Moses and the prophets did speak. Christ is the sum and substance of the Old Testament.

The disciples invited others to come and see. They knew that if they would but put Jesus to the test they would believe. Christianity courts investigation (John 7:17).

When Life Grows Broader.

God does not count prosperity as we count it. Our sense of proportion is largely shaped by our experiences. When life is quiet and sheltered, and the stream runs smoothly we notice every ripple and magnify every small obstruction. We are fully occupied with our work, our social worries. Then comes some great anxiety or new responsibility which suddenly changes everything. Our old interests are dwarfed and lost. We say that we wonder that we ever lived such trifles to burden our lives. By such experiences life grows broader and higher and takes on new values. We have new standards of measurement for our fellow men as well as ourselves.

The Bible.

God might, of course, have given us a book by divine book, written by his finger on the stones. We find that he has given us instead a library of books. The authors with very different lives and characteristics. I can come long it with the Bible. It is not that he did not want to be an angel, or millions of angels, but by a man who worked in a carpenter's shop—Rev. J. H. Dutton D.D.

Cheerfulness.

Better to be small and shine, than to be great and cast a shadow. Cheerfulness is God's medicine. Everybody ought to bathe in it. Grim care, anxiety and all the rest of life can be scoured off with the oil of cheerfulness.

Love Never Tires.

Love is indefatigable, it never tires. Love is inexhaustible, it lives and is born again of itself, and the more it pours itself forth, the more it abounds.—De Lamequais.

Evidence for the Bedford People

The Statements of Bedford Residents Are Surely More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers.

Home testimony is real proof.
Public statements of Bedford people carry real weight.

The word of one whose home is far away invites your doubts.
Here's a Bedford statement.
And it's for Bedford people's benefit.

Such evidence is convincing.
That's the kind of proof that backs Doan's Kidney Pills.

J. O. Henderson, Bedford street, Bedford, says: "For some time I was troubled with my kidneys. Often I had bad headaches and severe pains in the small of my back. At such times I could hardly bend over as the pains would catch me in my back and cause me so much misery. I started the use of Doan's Kidney Pills and they did me so much good that I have kept on taking them. Now I have no more headaches and I never felt better."

A Coated Tongue? What it Means

A bad breath, coated tongue, bad taste in the mouth, languor and debility, are usually signs that the liver is out of order.

Dr. Henderson says: "The liver is an organ secondary in importance only to the heart." We can accumulate poisons within our own bodies which are as deadly as a snake's venom.

The liver acts as a guard over our well-being, storing up the poisons and ashes from the general circulation. A blockage in the intestines piles a heavy burden on the liver. If the intestines are clogged or clogged up, the circulation of the blood becomes impaired and the system becomes loaded with poisons, and we suffer from yellow-coated tongue, bad taste in the mouth, nausea, gas, acid dyspepsia, languor, debility, yellow skin or eyes. At such times one should take castor oil or a pleasant laxative. Such a one is made of Mayapple, leaves of aloe and jalap, put into ready-to-use form by Doctor Pierce, nearly twenty years ago, and sold for 25 cents a bottle at druggists as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Laxative.

IT'S NOT YOUR HEART IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. A majority of the ill afflictions today can be traced back to kidney trouble.
The kidneys are the most important organs of the body. They are the filters, the purifiers, of your blood.
Kidney disease is usually indicated by weakness, sleeplessness, nervousness, despondency, backache, stomach trouble, pain in loins and lower abdomen, gail stones, gravel, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago.
All these derangements are nature's signals to warn you that the kidneys need help. You should use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately. The soothing, healing oil stimulates the kidneys, relieves inflammation and destroys the germs which have caused it. Do not wait until tomorrow. Go to your druggist today and insist on GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. In twenty-four hours you should feel health and vigor returning and will bless the day you first heard of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil.
After you feel that you have cured yourself, continue to take one or two capsules each day, so as to keep in first-class condition and ward off the danger of other attacks.

WILL BE SIXTY FEET HIGH

Interesting News Items, Briefly Condensed, Picked Up at the Departments, Which Are of Interest to the People of the State.

Harrisburg, a.—The first of the steel observation towers authorized by the State Forestry Association as a part of the forest fire protection service in Pennsylvania will be erected within the next six or eight weeks and be put into immediate service. Some of the material has arrived and it is hoped to push the work so that the towers may be ready in the fall when destructive fires have occurred in State forests because of lack of observation and report facilities.

The first towers will be erected in the following locations. North Codorusport in Hebron township, Otter county, near Galeton in Pike township, Potter county, west of Austin in Portage township, Potter county, near Ansonia in Shippen township, Tioga county; near Tamarack, Leidy township, Clinton county, near pump house in Brown township, Lycoming county, and on Big Poe Mountain, Coburn township, Centre county.

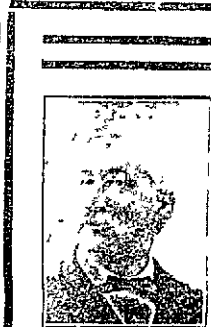

These towers will be 60 feet high and located on high ground to give a wide view of the surrounding country for miles around. They will have enclosed cabins.

State Forestry officials have decided to increase the number of observation towers a greatly as possible. It is feared that the towers should be a dozen more provided the funds are available.

There are several fire observation towers operated in conjunction with the Anthracite Protective Association, composed of coal companies, owning large tracts of timberland in Schuylkill and Luzerne counties.

Flags of 112th Reach Capitol.

Regimental colors of the 112th Infantry, formed of the old 8th and 10th Pennsylvania regiments at Camp Hancock and which fought in the F system division under command of Colonel George C. Rickards, of O. City, have been received at the office of the Adjutant General for deposit in the records of the Capitol with the other flags of Pennsylvania organizations in the World War. With exception of flags of the 110th the State now has a flag, and in some cases two flags of each unit in the Keystone Division. The Adjutant General has also received the flag of the 149th machine gun battalion which was formed out of companies of the old 4th Pennsylvania and was attached to the Rainbow division. This flag was sent from the War Department.

Exercise Discretion.

Richard, on his first trip to the country, climbed the fence into the field where a few cows were grazing. The cow being somewhat of a pet, greeted him with a loud and jovious moo, whereupon Richard bent a hasty and disorderly retreat. "No, I wasn't edgely afraid," he explained; "but when she kept saying, 'Move, move,' I thought I'd better keep a-movin'!"

DEATHS

Mrs. Ellis Evans

Mrs. Helena Genevieve Evans, wife of Ellis B. Evans, died in the Blair Memorial Hospital at Huntingdon on Thursday evening at six o'clock, after a short illness of less than twenty four hours, from acute Bright's disease. A little son had been born in the morning about 10:30, which died shortly after.

Mrs. Evans' home was in Altoona but her husband was an electrical engineer in the employ of the P. R. R. and traveled from place to place, accompanied by his wife, until just lately when she went to Huntingdon to visit her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Evans, of 824 Washington Street, where she was when she was stricken. Mrs. Evans was the daughter of Henry and Catherine Weber and was born at Wolfburg, September 2, 1887, and at the time of her death was aged 32 years and 1 month. She was married to Mr. Evans, June 29, 1910. Mrs. Evans taught in the public schools of Bedford Township, at Wolfburg and was loved and revered by pupils and patrons. She held a state permanent certificate. She was kind, loving and devoted wife and mother and was highly respected by all who knew her. She was a faithful Christian woman and was brought up in the Catholic church. Her little son, Edward Weber, died March 7, 1918, at the age of seven years, which was a great shock to the family.

She is survived besides her husband, by her parents and one brother and four sisters,—Henry O'Connell Weber, of Wolfburg; Mrs. Robert Fyan, of Bedford; Mrs. Ruth Barnes of Hartley, and Misses Katie and Carrie Weber, sister at the Convent of Mercy, Pittsburgh.

The remains were brought to Bedford on Friday evening to the home of her sister, Mrs. Robert Fyan. The funeral services were held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the Bedford Catholic Church, where high mass was said by the Priest in charge with interment in the Bedford Catholic cemetery.

National Events

in a Nutshell

The Census Bureau prepared its plans for taking the 1920 census. The democratic party in conference planned methods for reaching the woman voters. United States railroad shopmen reached an agreement with the Government. Herbert Hoover announced that he hopes to return to the Government a large part of the funds allowed for European relief work. The United States is to keep eight of the large German vessels seized in the war. Soldiers were put on guard in Omaha following race rioting. Secretary Redfield stated that the cause of labor war had struck. The Vice President and Secretary Lansing and Baker greeted the King and Queen of Belgium on their arrival in this country. The Senate rejected Senator Fall's amendments for treaty changes.
